

IN THE CLAIMS:

Claim 1 (original) A composition comprising a plurality of positionally distinguishable sequence specific reagents attached to a solid substrate, which reagents are capable of specifically binding to a predetermined subunit sequence of a preselected multi-subunit length having at least three subunits, said reagents representing substantially all possible sequences of said preselected length.

Please cancel claims 2-25 without prejudice or disclaimer of Applicant's right to the subject matter thereof.